

Power law approximation for supremal functionals

Elvira Zappale¹

¹*Sapienza - Universit'a di Roma, Dipartimento di Scienze di Base ed Applicate per l'Ingegneria, Italy*

Corresponding/Presenting author: elvira.zappale@uniroma1.it

Talk Abstract

I will discuss the power law approximation of supremal functionals, especially in connection with optimal design problems.

The results, mostly contained in [3, 4], follow in connection with PDEs and norm approximation, and generalize some previous theorems contained in [1, 2].

Keywords: supremal functionals, relaxation, Γ -convergence.

Acknowledgements

The talk is based on research projects partially supported by INdAM-GNAMPA.

References

- [1] Ansini, N. and Prinari, F., Power-law approximation under differential constraints., SIAM J. Math. Anal., 46, (2014), n.2, 1085–1115.
- [2] Prinari, F., On the lower semicontinuity and approximation of L^∞ -functionals, NoDEA. Nonlinear Differential Equations and Applications, 22, (2015), n. 6, 1591–1605.
- [3] Prinari, F. and Zappale, E., A relaxation result in the vectorial setting and power law approximation for supremal functionals, J. Optim. Theory Appl., 186, (2020), 2, 412–452.
- [4] Gargiulo, G., Zappale, E., and Zorgati H., L^p - approximation for optimal design models, in preparation.